- (2) The Commission may terminate the appointment of an officer at any time.
- Commission staff 25. (1) The Commission may employ any person the Commission considers necessary to perform its duties and exercise its powers under securities laws.
- Compensation (2) Except as provided in any contract of employment with the Commission, the Minister may grant to any employee of the Commission in respect of his service with the Commission pensions, gratuities or other like allowances at the rate prescribed by and in accordance with the provisions of the Pensions Act as if reference in that Act to the "Governor-General", the "public service" and a "public officer" were references to the Commission acting with the approval of the Minister, service in the Commission and such employee, respectively.
- (3) For the purpose of subsection (1) reference to the service of an employee of the Commission includes any continuous period of service of that employee with an approved authority immediately prior to his service with the Commission.
- (4) In this section the expression "approved authority" has the same meaning as in section 2 of the Pensions Act.
- (5) The pensions, gratuities or other like allowances which are payable under subsection (1) shall be charged on and paid out of the funds of the Commission or the Consolidated Fund.
- Appointment of experts 26. (1) The Commission may appoint, hire or retain, on such terms and conditions as it may approve, an expert to assist it in any manner that it considers necessary.
- (2) Where the Commission appoints an expert to advise it on the development of specific policies, rules or other regulatory proposals of the Commission, the expert shall formulate and report the expert's views to the Commission in writing and the Commission may, if it thinks fit, make the report available to the public.
- Indemnity 27. (1) No civil or criminal liability shall attach to a Member, the Executive Director, an employee or an agent of the Commission for an act done in good faith in the performance of a duty or in the exercise of a function or power of the Commission under this Act or the Investment Funds Act or the regulations made under either Act.

- (2) The Commission may indemnify a Member, the Executive Director, an employee or an agent of the Commission against the cost of defending his actions while so discharging his functions.

Confidentiality

28. (1) The Commission or any officer, employee, agent or adviser of the Commission who discloses any information relating to –
- (a) the affairs of the Commission;
 - (b) any application made to the Commission;
 - (c) the affairs of a market participant; or
 - (d) the affairs of a client of a regulated person;
- that the person has acquired in the course of that person's duties or in the exercise of the Commission's functions under this or any other law, is guilty of an offence and shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding $50,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years.

- (a) lawfully required or permitted by any court of competent jurisdiction within The Bahamas;
 - (b) for the purpose of assisting the Commission to exercise any function conferred on it by securities laws;
 - (c) in respect of the affairs of a market participant or of a client of a regulated person, with the consent of the market participant or client, as the case may be, which consent has been voluntarily given;
 - (d) where the information disclosed is or has been available to the public from any other source;
 - (e) where the information disclosed is in a manner that does not enable the identity of any market participant or of any client of a regulated person to which the information relates to be ascertained;
 - (f) to a person with a view to the institution of, or for the purpose of –
 - (i) criminal proceedings;
 - (ii) disciplinary proceedings, whether within or outside The Bahamas, relating to the exercise by a counsel and attorney, auditor, accountant, valuer or actuary of the person's professional duties;
 - (iii) disciplinary proceedings relating to the discharge by a public officer, or a Member or employee of the Commission of that person's duties; or
 - (g) in any legal proceedings in connection with –
 - (i) the winding-up or dissolution of a regulated person; or
 - (ii) the appointment or duties of a receiver of a regulated person.

Powers of Minister

29. (1) The Minister may give the Commission directions in writing for the discharge of its functions where the Minister is of the opinion that such directions are necessary or advisable to ensure that The Bahamas complies with its obligations under international treaties and agreements, and the Commission shall give effect to such directions.
- (2) The Commission shall promptly give the Minister any information about its activities, operations and financial affairs as the Minister requests.
- (3) The Minister may designate a person to examine any financial or accounting procedures.

activities or practices of the Commission and the person designated shall report the results of the examination to the Minister.

- (4) The Members and employees of the Commission shall give the person designated by the Minister under subsection (3) all the assistance and co-operation necessary to enable that person to complete the examination.

Accounts, auditor and audit

30. (1) The Commission shall keep proper accounts of all transactions and shall prepare annual financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. The financial statements must present the financial position, results of operations and changes in the financial position of the Commission for its most recent fiscal year.
- (2) The Commission shall appoint one or more approved auditors to audit the financial statements of the Commission for each fiscal year.

Annual report

31. (1) The Commission shall, as soon as practicable after the end of each financial year and in any event not later than 30th June in any year, submit to the Minister a report containing –
- (a) an account of its transactions throughout the preceding financial year in such detail as the Minister may direct; and
- (b) an audited statement of the accounts of the Commission accompanied by the auditor's report.
- (2) The Minister shall cause a copy of the report together with a copy of the audited financial statements and the auditor's report to be laid on the table of both Houses of Parliament.
- (3) Copies of an annual report shall be made available to the public no later than fourteen days after it is laid in Parliament under subsection (2).

Commission procedures

32. (1) The Commission shall meet at such times as may be necessary or expedient for the transaction of business, and such meetings shall be held at such places and time and on such days as the Chairman may determine.
- (2) The Chairman, or in his absence the Deputy Chairman, or in the absence of both of them, such other person as authorized by the Chairman, shall preside at all meetings of the Commission.
- (3) A quorum for a meeting of the Commission shall consist of the person authorized under subsection (2) to preside at the meeting of the Commission and three other members.
- (4) The decisions of the Commission shall be by a majority of votes and in any case in which the voting is equal, the Chairman or the Deputy Chairman presiding at the meeting has a casting vote, in addition to an original vote.
- (5) The Commission may make rules –
- (a) respecting the calling of and conduct of business at meetings of the Commission;
- (b) respecting procedures for the initiation and holding of hearings by the Commission;
- (c) prescribing the procedure for appeals and review of decisions of –
- (i) persons to whom the Commission's powers have been delegated; and
- (ii) persons registered under Part V;
- (d) with the approval of the Minister, establishing a code of conduct governing the activities of Members and the officers and employees of the Commission in order to avoid conflicts of interest and other practices that the Commission considers undesirable; and
- (e) respecting any other matter, whether or not required by this Act, relating to the organization, procedure, administration or practice of the Commission.

- Panels of the Commission
33. (1) The Commission may establish one or more panels and, in matters referred to a panel by the Commission, the panel has the powers of the Commission delegated to it by Commission order.
- (2) A panel shall be composed of three or more persons appointed by the Commission, the majority of whom must be Members.
- (3) The Commission may appoint one or more qualified person to a panel who is not a Member.
- (4) The Commission may –
- (a) terminate appointments to a panel; and
 - (b) except for a panel that has commenced a hearing, fill a vacancy on a panel.
- (5) The Commission may refer a matter that is –
- (a) before the Commission to a panel; and
 - (b) before a panel to the Commission or to another panel.

Part III

Assistance To Domestic and Foreign Regulatory Authorities

Division 1 - Interpretation

- Interpretation
34. In this Part, unless the context otherwise requires —
- "enforce" means enforce through criminal, civil or administrative proceedings;
- "enforcement" means the taking of any action to enforce a law or regulatory requirement against a specified person, where the law or regulatory requirement relates to the capital markets of the foreign jurisdiction of the regulatory authority concerned;
- "investigation" means an investigation to determine if a specified person has contravened or is contravening a law or regulatory requirement, where the law or regulatory requirement relates to the capital markets of the foreign jurisdiction of the regulatory authority concerned;
- "material" includes any information, document in any form;
- "supervision", in relation to an overseas regulatory authority, means the taking of any action for the supervision of —
- (a) a marketplace or any other person regulated or supervised by the overseas regulatory authority; or
 - (b) the issue of or trading in securities in the foreign jurisdiction of the overseas regulatory authority.

Division 2 – Assistance to Domestic Regulatory Authorities

- Exercise of powers on behalf of domestic regulatory authorities
35. (1) At the request of a domestic regulatory authority, the Commission may, where it considers appropriate, exercise its powers under securities laws for the purposes of assisting the performance by the domestic regulatory authority of its regulatory functions.
- Confidentiality exception for disclosure to domestic regulatory authorities
- (2) Despite subsection 28(1), the Commission may provide information that it has acquired in the course of its duties or in the exercise of its functions under securities laws to any other domestic regulatory authority where the Commission considers such information may be relevant to the functions of such other domestic regulatory authority or as a necessary part of a framework for consolidated supervisions, oversight or regulation of the financial services sector.

Division 3 – Assistance to Foreign Regulatory Authorities

- Conditions for provision of assistance
36. (1) The Commission may provide the assistance referred to in section 37 to a overseas regulatory authority if the Commission is satisfied that all of the following conditions are fulfilled:
- (a) the assistance is intended to enable the overseas regulatory authority, or any designated third party, to carry out the supervision, investigation or enforcement to which the request relates;
 - (b) the overseas regulatory authority has given a written undertaking that any material obtained pursuant to its request shall not be used for any purpose other than a purpose that is specified in the request and approved by the Commission;
 - (c) the overseas regulatory authority has given a written undertaking not to disclose to a third party (other than a designated third party of the foreign jurisdiction in accordance with paragraph (d)) any material received pursuant to the request unless the overseas regulatory authority is compelled to do so by the law or a court of the foreign jurisdiction;
 - (d) the overseas regulatory authority has given a written undertaking to obtain the prior consent of the Commission before disclosing to a designated third party any material received pursuant to the request, and to make such disclosure only in accordance with such conditions as may be imposed by the Commission;
 - (e) the material requested is of sufficient importance to the carrying out of the supervision, investigation or enforcement to which the request relates and cannot reasonably be obtained by any other means;
 - (f) the matter to which the request relates is of sufficient gravity; and
 - (g) the rendering of assistance will not be contrary to the public interest of The Bahamas or the interest of the investing public.
- (2) For the purposes of subsections (1)(c) and (d), "designated third party", in relation to a foreign jurisdiction, means –
- (a) any person or body responsible for supervising the overseas regulatory authority in question;
 - (b) any authority of the foreign jurisdiction responsible for carrying out the supervision, investigation or enforcement in question; or
 - (c) any authority of the foreign jurisdiction, other than the requesting overseas regulatory authority, exercising a function that corresponds to a regulatory function of the Commission under this Act.
- Other factors to consider for provision of assistance
- (3) In deciding whether to grant a request for assistance referred to in section 37 from an overseas regulatory authority, the Commission may also have regard to the following –
- (a) whether the act or omission that is alleged to constitute the contravention of the law or regulatory requirement to which the request relates would, if it had occurred in The Bahamas, have constituted a breach of securities laws;
 - (b) whether the overseas regulatory authority has given or is willing to give an undertaking to the Commission to comply with a future request by the Commission to the overseas regulatory authority for similar assistance; and
 - (c) whether the overseas regulatory authority has given or is willing to give an undertaking to the Commission to contribute towards the costs of providing the assistance that the overseas regulatory authority has requested.
- Assistance that may be rendered
37. (1) Notwithstanding subsection 28(1), the provisions of any prescribed written law or any requirement imposed thereunder, or any rule of law, the Commission or any person authorised be rendered

by the Commission may, in relation to a request by an overseas regulatory authority for assistance —

- (a) transmit to the overseas regulatory authority any material in the possession of the Commission that is requested by the authority;
 - (b) order any person to furnish to the Commission any material that is requested by the overseas regulatory authority, and transmit the material to that authority;
 - (c) order any person to transmit directly to the overseas regulatory authority any material that is requested by the authority;
 - (d) order any person to make an oral statement to the Commission on any information requested by the overseas regulatory authority, record such statement, and transmit the recorded statement to the authority; or
 - (e) request any Ministry, Government department or statutory authority to furnish to the Commission any material that is requested by the overseas regulatory authority, and transmit the material to the authority.
- (2) The assistance referred to in subsection (1)(c) may only be rendered if the material sought is to enable the overseas regulatory authority to carry out investigation or enforcement.
 - (3) An order under subsection (1)(b), (c) or (d) shall have effect notwithstanding any obligations as to secrecy or other restrictions upon the disclosure of information imposed by any prescribed written law or any requirement imposed thereunder, any rule of law, any contract or any rule of professional conduct.
 - (4) A person shall not be required under this section to disclose information or to produce a document, which the person would be entitled to refuse to disclose or to produce on the grounds of legal professional privilege in court proceedings.
 - (5) For the purposes of this section, any information or other matter comes to a professional legal adviser in privileged circumstances if it is communicated or given to the legal adviser –
 - (a) by, or by a representative of, a client of the adviser in connection with the giving by the adviser of legal advice to the client;
 - (b) by, or by a representative of, a person seeking legal advice from the adviser; or
 - (c) by any person –
 - (i) in contemplation of, or in connection with, legal proceedings; and
 - (ii) for the purpose of those proceedings.
 - (6) No information or other matter shall be treated as coming to a professional legal adviser in privileged circumstances if it is communicated or given with a view to furthering any criminal purpose.
 - (7) A lawyer who refuses to disclose, or furnish or transmit any material that contains, any privileged communication shall nevertheless be obliged to give the name and address (if the lawyer knows them) of the person to whom, or by or on behalf of whom, the privileged communication was made.
 - (8) A person is not excused from making an oral statement pursuant to an order made under subsection (1) (d) on the ground that the statement might tend to incriminate the person but, where the person claims before making the statement that the statement might tend to be incriminating, that statement shall not be admissible in evidence against the person in any criminal proceedings other than proceedings for an offence under section 38.

Division 4 – General

- Offences under this Part 38. Any person who —
- (a) without reasonable excuse refuses or fails to comply with an order under this Part;
 - (b) in purported compliance with an order under this Part, furnishes to the Commission or transmits to an overseas regulatory authority any material known to the person to be false or misleading in a material particular; or
 - (c) in purported compliance with an order made under this Part, makes a statement to the Commission that is false or misleading in a material particular,
- is guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $100,000 and if the offence of which the person is convicted is continued after conviction, the person commits a further offence and shall be liable to a fine of $10,000 for every day on which the offence is continued.
- Immunities 39. (1) No civil or criminal proceedings, other than proceedings for an offence under section 38, shall lie against any person for —
- (a) furnishing to the Commission or transmitting any material to the Commission or an overseas regulatory authority if the person had furnished or transmitted that material in good faith in compliance with an order made under this Part;
 - (b) making a statement to the Commission in good faith and in compliance with an order made under this Part; or
 - (c) doing or omitting to do any act, if the person had done or omitted to do the act in good faith and as a result of complying with such an order.
- (2) Any person who complies with an order referred to in subsection (1)(a) or (b) shall not be treated as being in breach of any restriction upon the disclosure of information or thing imposed by any prescribed written law or any requirement imposed thereunder, any rule of law, any contract or any rule of professional conduct.

Part IV

Investigations and Inspections

Division 1 – Interpretation

- Interpretation 40. For the purposes of this Part, "regulated person" includes a party related to an investment fund.

Division 2 - Investigations

- Power to investigate 41. (1) The Commission may conduct such investigation as it considers necessary or expedient for any of the following purposes:
- (a) to determine whether any person has contravened, is contravening or is about to contravene securities laws;
 - (b) for the administration of securities laws; or
 - (c) to assist in the administration of the securities legislation of another jurisdiction.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the Commission may conduct the investigation or may, in writing, appoint another person for that purpose.
- (3) The Commission may exercise any of its powers under this Division for the purposes of conducting an investigation under subsection (1) notwithstanding the provisions of any prescribed written law or any requirement imposed thereunder or any rule of law.

- Powers to obtain information for investigation
42. (1) Where the Commission considers that a person is or may be able to give information or produce a document which is or may be relevant to an investigation, it may:
- (a) Require such person to attend before it at a specified time and place to answer questions, including under oath or affirmation that the statements that the person will make will be true;
 - (b) Enter, during reasonable hours, the business premises of such person for the purpose of –
 - (i) inspecting and copying information or documents stored in any form on such premises; and
 - (ii) removing from the premises any information or documents.
 - (c) Require such person to give, or procure the giving of, specified information or information of a specified description in such form as the Commission may reasonably require;
 - (d) Require such person to produce, or procure the production of, specified documents or documents of a specified description;
 - (e) Require such person to give an explanation of or further particulars regarding any information or document produced under paragraphs (c) and (d);
 - (f) Require such person to give the Commission all assistance in relation to the investigation that the person is reasonably able to give.
- (2) If a person, acting on behalf of the Commission, enters premises under subsection (1)(b), the person must present proof of his or her authority to do so.
- (3) Any information or document removed under subsection (1)(b) must be returned to the person from whom, or premises from which, it was taken as soon as practicable.

- Uncooperative witness liable for contempt
43. On application by the Commission to the court, a person summoned under section 42 is liable to be committed for contempt, as if in breach of an order or judgment of the court, if the person neglects or refuses to –
- (a) attend;
 - (b) give evidence; or
 - (c) produce a document in the custody, possession or control of the witness.

Division 3 – Inspections

- Compliance inspections – regulated persons
44. (1) At any time, the Commission may conduct an on-site or off-site inspection of the business of a regulated person for the purpose of
- (a) determining if the person is complying with –
 - (i) securities laws;
 - (ii) the Financial Transactions Reporting Act; or
 - (iii) any other prescribed statute that is administered by the Commission; or
 - (b) assisting in the administration of the securities legislation of another jurisdiction..
- (2) The Commission may, in writing, appoint another person to conduct the inspection under subsection (1).
- (3) The Commission may, by notice in writing, require a person under inspection to produce information or documents, or a class of information or documents, that reasonably relates to the inspection.
- (4) After receiving a notice under subsection (3), a person must, within a reasonable period as specified in the notice, provide to the Commission the information or document that is described in the notice and that is in the custody, possession or control of the person.

- (5) The Commission may enter, during reasonable hours, the business premises of such person for the purpose of –
 - (a) inspecting and copying information or documents stored in any form on such premises; and
 - (b) removing from the premises any information or documents.
- (6) The Commission may require a person under inspection to give an explanation of or further particulars regarding any information or document produced under subsection (4).
- (7) If a person, acting on behalf of the Commission, enters premises under subsection (5) the person must present proof of his or her authority to do so.
- (8) Any information or document removed under subsection (5) must be returned to the person from whom, or premises from which, it was taken as soon as practicable.

Power to require reports

45. (1) The Commission may require a regulated person to provide the Commission with a report, in such form as may be specified in the notice, by the person's approved auditor, or by an accountant or other person with relevant professional skill, on, or on any aspect of, any matter about which the Commission has required or could require the regulated person to provide information under section 44.
- (2) The report shall be prepared at the expense of the regulated person.
- (3) The person appointed by a regulated person to make the report required under section (1) shall immediately give written notice to the Commission of any fact or matter of which that person becomes aware which indicates –
 - (a) that any of the minimum criteria is not or has not been fulfilled, or may not be or may not have been fulfilled, in respect of the regulated person; and
 - (b) that the matters are likely to be of material significance for the exercise, in relation to such person, of the Commission's functions under this Act.
- (4) The person appointed to make a report required under this section must be a person approved by the Commission.

Compliance inspection of other market participants

46. (1) The Commission may inspect the business of a market participant, other than a regulated person, for the purpose of:
 - (a) determining if the person is complying with: –
 - (i) securities laws;
 - (ii) the Financial Transactions Reporting Act; or
 - (iii) any other prescribed statute that is administered by the Commission; or
 - (b) assisting in the administration of the securities legislation of another jurisdiction..
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the Commission may, in writing, appoint another person to conduct the inspection.
- (3) The Commission may, by notice in writing, require a person under inspection to produce information or documents, or a class of information or documents, that reasonably relates to the inspection.
- (4) After receiving a notice under subsection (3), a person must, within a reasonable period as specified in the notice, provide to the Commission the information or document that is described in the notice and that is in the custody, possession or control of the person.

- General
47. (1) After the conclusion of an inspection of a regulated person under section 44 or a market participant under section 46, a report shall be prepared setting out the findings of that inspection.
- (2) The Commission shall consider and make recommendations on any information or report prepared under this Division.
- (3) The Commission shall assess charges to recover the cost of any inspection performed under this Division.
- (4) Upon application, the Commission may grant an exemption regarding the payment of costs where the Commission considers it appropriate.

Division 4 – Provision of Information Relating to Transactions

- Provision of information relating to transactions
48. (1) The Commission may, for the purposes of assisting in the performance of any of its functions or the exercise of any of its powers under securities laws, require –
- (a) a person registered as the holder of securities in a register kept by or on behalf of an issuer;
- (b) a person that the Commission has reasonable cause to believe holds any securities;
- (c) a person that the Commission has reasonable cause to believe has acquired or disposed of any securities, whether directly or through a nominee, trustee or agent, and whether as beneficial owner, nominee, trustee, agent or otherwise; or
- (d) a regulated person through which the Commission has reasonable cause to believe any securities have been acquired, disposed of, dealt with or traded.
- to furnish to the Commission any of the information specified in subsection (2) within the time and in the form specified.
- (2) The information specified for the purposes of subsection (1) is:
- (a) particulars that are reasonably capable of establishing the identity of the person on whose behalf, or by, from, to or through whom the securities in question are held, or have been acquired, disposed of, dealt with or traded (as the case may be);
- (b) the instructions given to or by the person referred to in paragraph (a) or any officer, employee or agent of such person, in relation to the holding, acquisition, disposal, dealing, or trading of or in respect of the securities.
- (c) the particulars of the securities and the consideration given or received; and
- (d) any other information in the possession of the person as the Commission may specify.

Division 5 - General

- Liens
49. Where the person in possession of any document required to be produced under this Part claims a lien on the document –
- (a) the requirement to produce the document shall not be affected by the lien;
- (b) no fees shall be payable for or in respect of the production; and
- (c) the production shall be without prejudice to the lien.
- Information about documents not in person's possession
50. If a person who is required under this Part to produce a document fails to do so, the Commission may require the person to state to the best of that person's knowledge and belief –
- (a) where that document may be found; and
- (b) the identity of the person who last had custody of that document.

(1) The Commission may delegate to a registered securities exchange or registered self-regulatory organisation, any of the powers conferred on it by this Act, including the authority to adopt and enforce rules for the conduct of their members and the responsibility to regulate their members' compliance with the provisions of those rules and of this Act.
- (2) Any delegation under subsection (1) shall be in writing.
- (3) The Commission may withdraw, add or vary any powers delegated under subsection (1) as it deems necessary.
- (4) Despite any delegation under subsection (1), the Commission shall continue to have full authority to regulate the activities of the registered securities exchange or registered self-regulatory organisation and any of its members.
- Voluntary surrender 63. (1) If a person registered under this Part applies to the Commission to surrender its registration, the Commission may accept the surrender unless the Commission considers it prejudicial to the public interest to do so.
- (2) On receiving an application under subsection (1), the Commission may, without providing an opportunity to be heard, suspend or impose any condition or restriction on the registration that the Commission deems appropriate.
- Auditors and audits 64. (1) Every person registered under this Part shall appoint an approved auditor who shall make an examination, in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, of the annual financial statements of the person and shall provide the Commission with the prescribed reports on the financial affairs of the person.
- Additional powers of Commission in respect of auditors (2) The Commission may impose all or any of the following duties on the auditor of a person registered under this Part –
- (a) a duty to submit to the Commission such additional information in relation to the audit as the Commission considers necessary;
- (b) a duty to enlarge or extend the scope of the audit of the business and affairs of the person registered under this Part;
- (c) a duty to carry out any other examination or establish any procedure in any particular case;
- (d) a duty to submit a report to the Commission on any of the matters referred to in paragraphs (b) and (c);
- and the auditor shall carry out such additional duty or duties.
- (3) The person registered under this Part shall remunerate the auditor in respect of the discharge of such additional duty or duties as the Commission may impose under subsection (2).
- Reporting to the Commission 65. Within the prescribed periods, a person registered under this Part shall deliver to the Commission
- (a) annual financial statements in respect of the year along with the report of the auditor;

- (b) interim financial statements and other information as may be prescribed; and
- (c) all reports or other information and documents as the Commission may prescribe.
- Confidentiality obligation 66. (1) Subject to subsection (2), a person registered under Part V and its partners, directors, officers and employees shall maintain, and aid in maintaining, the confidentiality of all information relating to –
- (a) the affairs of the person registered under Part V;
- (b) any application made to the Commission; or
- (c) the affairs of a client or member of the person registered under Part V;
- that –
- (d) comes to the knowledge of the person registered under Part V or any of its partners, directors, officers and employees; or
- (e) is in the possession of the person registered under Part V or any of its partners, directors, officers and employees.
- (2) Subsection (1) shall not apply to —
- (a) the disclosure of information for such purposes, or in such circumstances, as the Commission may prescribe;
- (b) any disclosure of information which is authorised by the Commission to be disclosed or furnished; or
- (c) the disclosure of information pursuant to any requirement imposed under any written law or order of court in The Bahamas.
- (3) Any person who discloses confidential information in breach of this provision is guilty of an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding $50,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years.
- Keeping of records 67. (1) A market participant shall –
- (a) make and keep such information and documents in such form and for such periods –
- (i) as are reasonably necessary in the conduct of its business and operations, including to document compliance with all requirements imposed by statute or regulation on the market participant; and
- (ii) as may be prescribed; and
- (b) file with or deliver to the Commission any prescribed document or report.
- (2) The Commission may require a market participant to disseminate to the public any report filed with the Commission under paragraph (1)(b).
- (3) In addition to subsection (1), a registered marketplace shall keep a record of each trade effected through its facilities showing the time when it took place and any other prescribed information.
- (4) A market participant shall deliver to the Commission a copy of, or an extract from, any information or document kept under this section upon receipt of a request from the Commission.
- Offences 68. (1) No person may establish or maintain, or assist in establishing or maintaining, a marketplace or clearing facility in The Bahamas or conduct business on or with a marketplace or clearing facility in The Bahamas other than one registered in accordance with this Act.
- (2) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) is guilty of an offence and shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine of $150,000 or to imprisonment for two years or to both.

Part VI

- (2) Failure to comply with this section shall render the registration of the registered firm revocable by the Commission.

Part VIII

Compensation Fund

- Compensation funds 82. The Commission may prescribe requirements regarding the establishment, maintenance and use of compensation funds for the protection of registrants and clients of registrants who may suffer loss as a result of the bankruptcy, insolvency or winding up of a registrant.

Part IX

Distributions and Prospectuses

- Interpretation 83. (1) In this Part –
- "communication" means a notice, circular, letter or advertisement in any media;
- "foreign prospectus" means a prospectus or other offering document to be used in connection with a distribution of securities that has become final for the purposes of a distribution in the recognised foreign jurisdiction and includes any supplement or amendment to the document.
- (2) For the purposes of this Part, a communication solicits the purchase or sale of securities if –
- (a) it invites a person to enter into an agreement for, or with a view to subscribing for, or otherwise acquiring or underwriting, any securities; or
 - (b) it contains information reasonably calculated to lead, directly or indirectly, to a person entering into such an agreement.
- Application (3) This Part does not apply to securities that are equity interests in investment funds.
- Prospectus required 84. (1) No person shall trade in a security on the person's own account or on behalf of any other person where the trade would be a distribution of the security, unless a preliminary prospectus and a prospectus have been filed with the Commission and the Commission has issued a receipt for each document.
- Disclosure (2) A preliminary prospectus and a prospectus filed under this Part must disclose all material information about the issuer and the securities being offered and contain the prescribed information.
- Receipt for preliminary prospectus 85. The Commission shall issue a receipt for a preliminary prospectus immediately upon the filing of the preliminary prospectus.

- | | | |
|---|-----|--|
| Selling activities before issue of receipt for prospectus | 86. | (1) During the period between the filing of the preliminary prospectus and the issue of the receipt for the prospectus, provided the requirements of section 88 are met, it is permissible to –
(a) distribute a communication identifying the security proposed to be issued provided that the communication contains all prescribed information;
(b) distribute a preliminary prospectus; and
(c) solicit expressions of interest from prospective purchasers.
(2) No binding agreement to purchase the securities may be entered into until the Commission issues the receipt for the prospectus. |
| Defective preliminary prospectus | 87. | If it appears to the Commission that a preliminary prospectus does not substantially comply with the prescribed requirements, the Commission may, without giving notice, order that the activities permitted by section 86 shall cease until a revised preliminary prospectus satisfactory to the Commission is filed and forwarded to each recipient of the defective preliminary prospectus. |
| Delivery of prospectus | 88. | (1) An issuer, selling security holder or registrant who solicits a sale of securities or receives an expression of interest, order or subscription from a person for a security offered in a distribution during the period before the issue of a receipt for the prospectus, shall send to such person the preliminary prospectus or amended preliminary prospectus, as the case may be.
(2) An issuer, selling security holder or registrant, who receives an expression of interest, order or subscription for a security offered in a distribution, during the distribution period shall send to such person a prospectus, or amended prospectus, as the case may be.
(3) The documents required to be sent under subsections (1) and (2) shall be sent within two business days after the expression of interest, order or subscription is received.
(4) An issuer or selling security holder that files a preliminary prospectus and prospectus with the Commission under this Part shall provide copies of those documents without charge upon request and shall furnish to a registrant a reasonable number of copies of the documents. |
| Amendments | 89. | (1) If, after a receipt is obtained for a preliminary prospectus and before the receipt for the prospectus is obtained or during the distribution period, there is a change in any material information the issuer shall file with the Commission an amended preliminary prospectus or amended prospectus containing the particulars of the material information.
(2) Every preliminary prospectus or prospectus thereafter sent or delivered to any person shall include the amended preliminary prospectus or amended prospectus.
(3) Where an amended prospectus is required to be filed with the Commission under subsection (1), the distribution of securities under the prospectus shall cease until such time as the Commission has issued a receipt for the amended prospectus.
(4) An issuer, selling security holder or registrant who sent a preliminary prospectus to a person under subsection 88(1) shall send to each such person an amended preliminary prospectus immediately after it has been filed.
(5) An issuer, selling security holder or registrant who sent a prospectus to a purchaser under subsection 88(2) shall send to each purchaser an amended prospectus immediately after a receipt is issued by the Commission for the amended prospectus. |
| Certificates | 90. | A prospectus or amended prospectus filed with the Commission shall contain certificates in the prescribed form signed by the prescribed persons. |
| Expert's consent | 91. | The Commission shall not issue a receipt for a prospectus that includes an expert's report unless the prescribed requirements have been met regarding the expert's consent. |

- | | | |
| Issue of receipt | 92. | (1) Subject to subsections (2), (3) and (4), the Commission shall issue a receipt for a prospectus within a reasonable time after the date of the filing of the prospectus. (2) The Commission shall refuse to issue a receipt for a prospectus – <ul style="list-style-type: none">(a) if the Commission considers that the distribution would be prejudicial to the public interest; or(b) for any other prescribed reason. (3) Where the Commission refuses to issue a receipt for a prospectus, the Commission shall provide the issuer or control block holder with notice in writing of the reasons for the refusal and the issuer or control block holder may file an appeal. (4) The Commission may, in connection with the issue of a receipt for a prospectus, impose any condition that in the opinion of the Commission is necessary for the protection of investors. |
| Exempt distributions | 93. | The requirement to file a prospectus under section 84 does not apply to a distribution – <ul style="list-style-type: none">(a) of securities issued by the Government of The Bahamas;(b) of securities issued by a private company;(c) of securities of an investment fund licensed or registered under the Investment Funds Act or exempt from licensing or registration under that Act;(d) by an issuer of its own securities that are distributed to holders of its securities as a dividend;(e) by an issuer of a security to holders of its securities incidental to a reorganization or winding up or to a distribution of its assets for the purpose of winding up its affairs;(f) by an issuer of a security that is exchanged by or for the account of the issuer with another issuer or the security holders of another issuer on –<ul style="list-style-type: none">(i) a statutory amalgamation or arrangement; or(ii) a statutory procedure by which one issuer takes title to the assets of another issuer that loses its existence by operation of law or by which the existing issuers merge into a new issuer;(g) by an issuer pursuant to a prescribed take-over bid;(h) where the Commission, being satisfied that to do so would not be prejudicial to the public interest, makes an order exempting the distribution, and the order may be subject to any condition the Commission considers appropriate; or(i) in such other prescribed circumstances. |
| Exemptions for approved foreign issuers | 94. | (1) An issuer that is an approved foreign issuer may satisfy the requirements of sections 84, 88, 89, 90 and 91 by – <ul style="list-style-type: none">(a) filing with the Commission the prescribed documents; and(b) delivering to each purchaser in The Bahamas –<ul style="list-style-type: none">(i) the foreign prospectus; and(ii) any other prescribed document. (2) Where an approved foreign issuer files with the Commission the documents required under subsection (1) the Commission shall issue a receipt for such foreign prospectus unless the Commission determines it is not in the public interest to do so. |
| Resale restrictions | 95. | The first trade in securities previously acquired pursuant to a prescribed exemption, other than a |

further trade exempted by this Act or the regulations, is deemed to be a distribution, unless the prescribed conditions are met.

- Lapse date
96. (1) Subject to subsection (2), in this section "lapse date" means for a distribution to which section 84 or 94 applies, the date that is 12 months after the date the Commission issued the receipt for the prospectus or foreign prospectus.
- (2) The Commission may order that the period specified in subsection (1) shall be reduced to not less than three months.
- (3) No distribution of a security to which section 84 or 94 applies shall continue after the lapse date unless a new prospectus or foreign prospectus that complies with this Part is filed and the Commission issues a receipt for the document.

- Offence
97. If a distribution is carried out other than in compliance with this Part, the issuer and every person who is knowingly a party to the distribution is guilty of an offence and shall be liable to a fine of $1,000 for every day, or part thereof, from the date of the first solicitation in connection with the distribution until a receipt has been issued for a prospectus by the Commission and shall be further liable –
- (a) on summary conviction to a fine of $30,000 or to imprisonment for six months, or to both;
- (b) on conviction on information to a fine of $75,000 or to imprisonment for one year or to both.

Part X

Continuing Obligations of Public Issuers

- General standards – disclosure to the public
98. (1) A public issuer must disclose to the public the prescribed information about the business operations and securities of the issuer.
- (2) A public issuer shall disclose to the public, as soon as practicable, any information relating to the public issuer, including information on any significant new developments in the issuer's business or affairs which is not public knowledge, which:
- (a) is necessary to enable them and the public to appraise the position of the public issuer;
- (b) is necessary to avoid the establishment of a false market in its securities;
- (c) might reasonably be expected materially to affect market activity in and the price of its securities; or
- (d) may significantly affect its ability to meet its commitments.
- (3) Information disclosed to the public by a public issuer must –
- (a) include all material information;
- (b) not contain a misrepresentation; and
- (c) present a balanced view of the issuer's activities.
- (4) The Commission may prescribe the method to be used by the public issuer to disclose information to the public.
- General standards – fair treatment of security holders
- (5) A public issuer must treat its security holders in a fair and equitable manner.
- General standards – duties of directors and
- (6) Every director and officer of a public issuer, in exercising their powers and discharging their duties, shall –

- officers
- (a) act honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the issuer; and
 - (b) exercise the care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent person would exercise in comparable circumstances.
- Timely disclosure of material changes
- 99.
- (1) Subject to subsection (2), where a material change occurs in the affairs of a public issuer, the issuer shall –
 - (a) immediately, and in any event within one day of the material change, issue a press release that discloses the nature and substance of the material change; and
 - (b) within five days of the material change, file with the Commission a report in the prescribed form.
 - (2) If the public issuer is of the opinion that the disclosure required by subsection (1) would be unduly detrimental to its interests it must immediately advise the Commission in writing of the material change and the reasons why the issuer is of the opinion that public disclosure should be withheld.
 - (3) Where the Commission is of the opinion that the disclosure of the material change would not be unduly detrimental to the interests of a public issuer, it may, after giving the public issuer an opportunity to be heard –
 - (a) require disclosure to the public of the material change in accordance with subsection (1); or
 - (b) permit non-disclosure of the material change by the public issuer provided non-disclosure does not continue beyond the time set out in subsection (5).
 - (4) A decision of the Commission under subsection (3) is final and no appeal from such a decision shall be available.
 - (5) Despite any permitted non-disclosure under subsection (2) or (3)(b), the public issuer shall disclose such material change no later than the thirtieth day following the date on which the public issuer would have been required to issue a press release in respect of the material change under subsection (1).
 - (6) Although a report has been given to the Commission under subsection (2), the public issuer shall promptly disclose the material change in the manner referred to in subsection (1) upon the public issuer becoming aware, or having reasonable grounds to believe, that persons are purchasing or selling securities of the issuer with knowledge of the undisclosed material change.
 - (7) For the purposes of this section, a "material change" means any change in any material information regarding the public issuer.
- Auditors and audits
- 100.
- Every public issuer shall appoint an approved auditor who shall make an examination, in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, of the annual financial statements of the person and shall provide the Commission with the prescribed reports on the financial affairs of the person.
- Financial statements – annual audited
- 101.
- (1) Every public issuer shall, within 120 days after the end of the issuer's financial year or such other prescribed period, file with the Commission annual financial statements prepared and certified as prescribed.
 - (2) Every financial statement referred to in subsection (1) shall be accompanied by a report of the auditor of the public issuer, without reservation of opinion, prepared as prescribed.
- Financial statements – interim statements
- (3) Every public issuer shall file with the Commission interim financial statements prepared and certified as prescribed, within 90 days or such other prescribed period after the end of the financial period to which it relates.

- | | | |
|---|------|--|
| Annual reports and other information | | (4) Every public issuer shall, within the prescribed period, file with the Commission –
(a) a copy of its annual report containing the prescribed information; and
(b) all reports or other information and documents as the Commission may prescribe. |
| Delivery of continuous disclosure documents to security holders | 102. | (1) As soon as practicable after filing with the Commission, a public issuer shall send to each security holder, at the last address of the security holder shown on the securities register of the public issuer and at no cost to the security holder, the –
(a) annual financial statements and the report of the auditor;
(b) interim financial statements;
(c) annual report; and
(d) any other prescribed report or document.
(2) The delivery obligation under subsection (1) does not apply –
(a) to documents published as prescribed; or
(b) if a security holder has informed the issuer that the security holder does not wish to receive the documents. |
| Proxies and Proxy Solicitation | 103. | (1) In this section "solicit" and "solicitation" includes –
(a) a request for a proxy, whether or not accompanied by or included in a form of proxy;
(b) a request to execute or not to execute a form of proxy or to revoke a proxy;
(c) the sending of a form of proxy or other communications to a security holder under circumstances reasonably calculated to result in the procurement, withholding or revocation of a proxy; and
(d) the sending of a form of proxy to a security holder under subsection (2);
but does not include –
(aa) the sending of a form of proxy in response to an unsolicited request made by or on behalf of a security holder;
(bb) the performance of administrative acts or professional services on behalf of a person soliciting a proxy;
(cc) the sending by a registrant of documents to a beneficial owner;
(dd) the solicitation by a person in respect of securities of which the person is the beneficial owner; or
(ee) other prescribed activities.
(2) A public issuer shall, concurrently with the giving of notice of a meeting of its security holders, send a prescribed form of proxy and any other prescribed document to each holder of voting securities who is entitled to receive notice of the meeting, at the latest address of the security holder shown on the securities register of the issuer.
(3) A person shall not solicit proxies under subsection (2) unless each security holder whose proxy is solicited is sent all prescribed documents concurrently with the solicitation.
(4) A person soliciting proxies shall file with a Commission a copy of each document sent to security holders.
(5) The Commission may –
(a) require a public issuer to file with the Commission draft copies of any documents that the issuer intends to send to security holders under this section prior to any sending, within |

- such time limit as may be prescribed; and
- (b) may review any proxy materials or any other communications to shareholders and require modifications to the documents or delay any mailing or security holder meeting as a result of its review.
- Exemptions for certain foreign issuers 104. A public issuer that is an approved foreign issuer is exempt from the requirements of this Part, other than section 103, provided that it –
- (a) complies in all respects with the foreign disclosure requirements of its recognised foreign jurisdiction regarding –

Part XI

Governance of Public Issuers

- Governance of public issuers 106. For the purposes of this Act and the regulations, a public issuer shall comply with all prescribed requirements regarding the governance of public issuers, including requirements relating to –
- (a) the composition of its board of directors and qualifications for membership on the board, including matters respecting the independence of members;
- (b) the establishment of specified types of committees of the board of directors, the mandate, functioning and responsibilities of each committee, the composition of each committee and the qualifications for membership on the committee, including matters respecting the independence of members;
- (c) the establishment and enforcement of a code of business conduct and ethics applicable to its directors, officers and employees and applicable to persons or companies that are in a special relationship with the public issuer, including the minimum requirements for such a code; and
- (d) procedures to regulate conflicts of interest between the interests of the public issuer and those of a director or officer of the public issuer.

- (a) a person who had an interest in the securities before the purchase or sale; or
(b) an associate of such a person; has an interest in the securities after the purchase or sale.
- (5) The reference in paragraph (2)(a) to a transaction of purchase or sale of securities includes –
- (a) a reference to the making of an offer to purchase or sell securities; and
(b) a reference to the making of an invitation, however expressed, that expressly or impliedly invites a person to offer to buy or sell securities.
- False trading and market rigging—artificially maintaining etc. trading price
111. (1) A person must not (whether in The Bahamas or elsewhere) enter into, or engage in, a fictitious or artificial transaction or device if that transaction or device results in –
- (a) the price for trading in securities on a registered marketplace being maintained, inflated or depressed; or
(b) fluctuations in the price for trading in securities on a registered marketplace.
- (2) In determining whether a transaction is fictitious or artificial for the purposes of subsection (1), the fact that the transaction is, or was at any time, intended by the parties who entered into it to have effect according to its terms is not conclusive.
- Misleading or deceptive conduct
112. (1) A person must not engage in conduct, in or from The Bahamas in relation to securities business or a security, that is misleading or deceptive or is likely to mislead or deceive.
- (2) The reference in subsection (1) to engaging in conduct in relation to a security includes any of –
- (a) trading in a security;
(b) issuing a security;
(c) publishing a notice in relation to a security;
(d) making, or making an evaluation of, an offer under a take-over bid or a recommendation relating to such an offer; or
(e) carrying on negotiations, or making arrangements, or doing any other act, preparatory to, or in any way related to, an activity covered by any of paragraphs (b) to (d).
- Misleading the Commission
113. A person must not, in purported compliance with any requirement imposed by or under securities laws, knowingly or recklessly provide the Commission or the public with information that is –
- (a) false;
(b) misleading in a material particular; or
(c) fails to state a fact that is required to be stated or that is necessary to make the statement not misleading.
- Dissemination of information about illegal transactions
114. A person must not (whether in The Bahamas or elsewhere) circulate or disseminate, or be involved in the circulation or dissemination of, any statement or information to the effect that the price for trading in securities on a registered marketplace will, or is likely to, rise or fall, or be maintained, because of a transaction, or other act or thing done, in relation to those securities, if –
- (a) the transaction, or thing done, constitutes or would constitute a contravention of section 109, 110, 111 or 112; and
(b) the person, or an associate of the person –
- (i) has entered into such a transaction or done such an act or thing; or
(ii) has received, or may receive, directly or indirectly, a consideration or benefit for circulating or disseminating, or authorising the circulation or dissemination of, the statement or information.

 - (d) where the issuer is not a public issuer prior to the distribution, any person who was a promoter of the issuer within the prescribed period immediately preceding the date of filing of the prospectus;
 - (e) a person whose consent has been filed as required by section 91 but only with respect to misrepresentations in a prospectus derived from, or based on that expert's report; and
 - (f) any other person who signed a certificate in the prospectus other than a person referred to in paragraphs (a) to (d).
- (2) No person, other than the issuer or the control block holder on whose behalf the distribution is made, is liable under subsection (1) –
- (a) who, having consented to become the chief executive officer, chief financial officer or a director of the issuer, withdrew the consent before the filing of the prospectus and the prospectus was filed without the person's authority or consent;
 - (b) who, when the prospectus was filed without the person's knowledge or consent, gave reasonable public notice of that fact immediately after becoming aware of it; or
 - (c) who, after the filing of the prospectus and before the sale of securities under it, became aware of a misrepresentation and withdrew the person's consent, and gave reasonable public notice of the withdrawal of the consent and the reasons for it.
- (3) No person is liable under subsection (1) –
- (a) where the misrepresentation is contained in a part of the prospectus made on the authority of an expert or based on an expert's report, if the person had reasonable grounds to believe and did believe, up to the time the prospectus was filed that –
 - (i) there was no misrepresentation;
 - (ii) the language in the prospectus fairly represented and was a correct and fair copy of, or extract from, the expert's report; and
 - (iii) the expert making the statement or preparing the report, opinion, valuation
 - (A) was competent to make it;
 - (B) had consented as required under section 91; and
 - (C) had not withdrawn that consent; or
 - (b) where the misrepresentation is contained in what purports to be a statement made by a public official or a copy of, or extract from, a public official document, if the misrepresentation was a correct and fair representation of the statement or a copy of, or extract from, the document and the person had reasonable grounds for believing it to be true.
- (4) The liability of all persons referred to in subsection (1) is joint and several as between themselves with respect to the same cause of action.
- (5) A person who is found liable to pay a sum in damages may recover a contribution, in whole or in part, from a person who is jointly and severally liable under this section to make the same payment in the same cause of action unless, in all the circumstances of the case, a court is - satisfied that it would not be just and equitable.

- (6) Despite subsections (4) and (5), no underwriter is liable for more than the total public offering price represented by the portion of the distribution of securities underwritten, or sold by or to, the underwriter.
- Action by security holders for rescission for misrepresentation in prospectus 144. (1) If a prospectus contains a misrepresentation, a purchaser of a security distributed under the prospectus has a right of action against the issuer, selling security holder or the underwriter that sold the securities to the purchaser under the prospectus for the rescission of the sale and the repayment to that purchaser of the price the person paid for that security.
- (2) If the purchaser elects to exercise a right of action for rescission against the issuer, selling security holder or underwriter under this section, such person shall have no right of action for damages against such issuer or underwriter under section 143.
- (3) The right of rescission also applies to securities sold under a prospectus that offers them for subscription in consideration of the transfer or surrender of other securities, whether with or without the payment of cash by or to the issuer, as though the issue price of the securities offered for subscription were the fair value, as ascertained by a court, of the securities to be transferred or surrendered, plus the amount of cash, if any, to be paid by the issuer.
- Due diligence defence 145. A person is not liable under section 143 for a misrepresentation in a prospectus if the person proves that the person –
- (a) made all inquiries that were reasonable in the circumstances; and
- (b) after doing so, believed on reasonable grounds that the statement was not a misrepresentation.
- Commission may seek leave to bring action or appear or intervene in an action 146. The Commission may apply to a court for leave to bring an action under this Part in the name and on behalf of an issuer or a security holder and the court may grant leave on any terms as to security for costs or otherwise that the court considers proper if it is satisfied that –
- (a) the Commission has reasonable grounds for believing that a cause of action exists under this Part;
- (b) the issuer or security holder has failed or is unable to commence an action; and
- (c) the Commission has given sixty days written notice to the issuer or security holder who has refused or failed to commence an action.
- General 147. (1) The rights of action for damages or rescission conferred by sections 143 and 144 shall be in addition to and without derogation from any other right the purchaser may have at law.
- (2) In an action brought under section 143 or 144, the person bringing such action shall be deemed to have relied on the prospectus in making the investment decision and need not prove that the person was in fact influenced by the misrepresentation or that the person relied on the misrepresentation in purchasing the security.
- (3) No person shall be liable under section 143 or 144 if the purchaser bringing the action knew of the misrepresentation at the time of the purchase.
- (4) The amount recoverable under section 143 or 144 by a purchaser shall not exceed the aggregate price paid by that purchaser for the securities under the offering.
- Standard of reasonableness (5) In determining what constitutes reasonable investigation or reasonable grounds for belief for the purposes of this Part, the standard of reasonableness shall be that required of a prudent person in the circumstances of the particular case.

interest.

- (6) The Commission must give a copy of any final rule to the Minister without delay.
- (7) If the Commission alters or revokes a rule, it must –
 - (a) publish notice of the alteration or revocation; and
 - (b) give written notice to the Minister;without delay and such notices must include details of the alteration or revocation.
- (8) In this section "publish" includes –
 - (a) publish in a daily newspaper of general circulation in the Bahamas;
 - (b) print in a periodical regularly published by the Commission;
 - (c) post on the Commission's website; or
 - (d) any other method of publication of the rule or proposed rule as prescribed.

Regulation prevails over rule	151.	If a rule made by the Commission conflicts with a regulation made by the Minister, the regulation made by the Minister prevails.
Power to vary Commission rules	152.	If the Commission considers it not prejudicial to the public interest to do so, the Commission may by order vary a rule made under section 149, as it applies to a person, trade or security, or a class of persons, trades or securities.
Power to remove exemption contained in Commission rule	153.	If the Commission considers it in the public interest to do so, the Commission may order that an exemption in a rule made under section 149 does not apply to a person, trade or security, or a class of persons, trades or securities.
Guidelines	154.	The Commission may publish guidelines regarding any regulations or rules made pursuant to securities laws, or of any provisions of securities laws, provided however that such guidelines shall not be taken as having the force of law.
Administrative proceedings and reviews	155.	<ol style="list-style-type: none">(1) Any person directly affected by a decision of the Executive Director or any employee exercising delegated authority from the Commission may, by notice in writing sent by registered mail to the Commission within thirty days after the mailing of the notice of the decision, request and be entitled to a hearing and review of that decision by the Commission.(2) Upon a hearing and review, the Commission may by order confirm the decision under review or make such other decision as the Commission considers proper.(3) Despite the fact that a person requests a hearing and review under subsection (2), the decision under review takes effect immediately, but the Commission may grant a stay until disposition of the hearing and review.
Review of decisions of securities exchange etc.	156.	<ol style="list-style-type: none">(1) Any person who is aggrieved by any act or omission of a person registered under Part V, may lodge a complaint in respect of that act or omission with the Commission.(2) The Commission may investigate and adjudicate upon the complaint lodged under subsection (1).(3) Sections 41 and 42 shall apply to any investigation conducted by the Commission under subsection (2).(4) The Commission may, following receipt of a complaint made under subsection (1), make such order as it thinks just, including an order for the payment by the person registered under Part V of any sum by way of restitution or as compensation for any loss suffered by the complainant.(5) Subject to subsection (6), the person who has filed a complaint against a person registered under Part V shall, if the Commission proceeds to a judgement on the complaint, be precluded from pursuing the complaint or making it the basis of any suit, action or proceeding in any court of law.

- (6) A person shall not be precluded under subsection (5), unless the person has, before the Commission proceeds to any hearing of and judgement upon the complaint, been informed in writing to that effect.

Appeals to court

157. (1) A person directly affected by a final decision of the Commission, other than those stated not to be subject to appeal, may appeal to the Supreme Court in accordance with the rules of court within thirty days after the later of the making of the final decision or the issuing of the reasons for the final decision.
- (2) Despite the fact that an appeal is taken under this section, the decision appealed from takes effect immediately, but the Commission or the Supreme Court may grant a stay until disposition of the appeal.
- (3) The Secretary shall certify to the Supreme Court –
- (a) the decision of the Commission, together with a statement of reasons for that decision;
 - (b) the record of the proceedings before the Commission; and
 - (c) all written submissions to the Commission or other material that is relevant to the appeal.
- (4) The Minister is entitled to be heard by counsel or otherwise on the argument of an appeal under this section, whether or not the Minister is named as a party to the appeal.
- (5) Where an appeal is taken under this section, the court may by its order direct the Commission to make such decision or to do such other act as the Commission is authorised and empowered to do under securities laws and as the court considers proper, having regard to the material and submissions before it and to securities laws, and the Commission shall make such decision or do such act accordingly.
- (6) Despite an order of the court on an appeal, the Commission may make any further decision upon new material or where there is a significant change in the circumstances, and every such decision is subject to this section.

Filing of documents and public
availability.

158. (1) All documents or information required to be filed with, delivered to or provided to the Commission shall be submitted to the Commission in the prescribed manner.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3), the Commission –
- (a) shall make all documents or information required to be filed with it available for public inspection; and
 - (b) may make all documents or information filed with it available to the public by posting such documents to the Internet website of the Commission.
- (3) The Commission may hold in confidence all or part of a document or information referred to in subsection (1), if it considers that –
- (a) a person whose information appears in the document or information would be unduly prejudiced by disclosure of the information; and
 - (b) the person's privacy interest outweighs the public's interest in having the information disclosed.
- (4) Where a document or information is required to be delivered or provided to the Commission by securities laws, the document or information shall not be disclosed under subsections (2) unless the Commission determines that such disclosure is in the public interest.

Register as evidence	159.	Where it is provided in securities laws that a register be established and maintained or kept, or a book of accounts be kept, or a list be prepared or published, any entry in such register, book of account or list, or the production of any licence or certificate issued under securities laws shall be prima facie evidence of the contents thereof.
Discretionary exemptions	160.	(1) If the Commission considers it not prejudicial to the public interest to do so, the Commission may exempt a person, trade or security, or a class of persons, trades or securities, from a provision in Parts V, VI, VII, VIII, IX, X, XI, XII, XIII and XIV of this Act. (2) Exemptions granted under subsection (1) shall be published by the Commission on its website.
Designation orders	161.	(1) If the Commission considers it not prejudicial to the public interest to do so, the Commission may, without providing an opportunity to be heard, order that – (a) an issuer, or an issuer within a class of issuers, is not a public issuer; (b) a person, or a person within a class of persons, is not a market participant or a marketplace; or (c) a right or obligation, or a right or obligation within a class of rights or obligations, is not a security. (2) If the Commission considers it in the public interest to do so, the Commission may, without providing an opportunity to be heard, order that – (a) an issuer, or an issuer within a class of issuers, is a public issuer; or (b) a person, or a person within a class of persons, is a market participant or a marketplace; or (c) a trade, or a trade within a class of trades, is a distribution.
Conditions on decisions	162.	The Commission may impose conditions, requirements and restrictions in any decision it makes.
Discretion to revoke or vary decision	163.	If the Commission considers it not prejudicial to the public interest to do so, the Commission may revoke or vary a decision.
Recognition of foreign securities exchanges and foreign jurisdictions	164.	For the purposes of securities laws, the Commission may, if it is in the public interest to do so, recognise a – (a) foreign jurisdiction, if the Commission is of the view that the securities laws and regulatory oversight in that jurisdiction are sufficient to ensure investor protection and market integrity and are of a standard at least equal to that in The Bahamas; and (b) foreign securities exchanges established and operated in a recognised foreign jurisdiction, if the Commission is of the view that the securities listed on and the trading activities taking place on that securities exchange are subject to a standard of regulation that is sufficient to ensure investor protection and market integrity.
Commission to keep register	165.	(1) The Commission shall maintain a register that shall contain the prescribed information about current and former regulated persons, public issuers and any other person required to be registered with or otherwise approved by the Commission under securities laws. (2) The Commission may make the register available to the public on the prescribed terms.
Repeal	166.	The Securities Industry Act, 1999 is repealed.
