SECURITIES INDUSTRY ACT, 2011

(NO. 10 OF 2011)

SECURITIES INDUSTRY (CONTRACTS FOR DIFFERENCES) RULES, 2020

The Securities Commission, in exercise of the powers conferred by section 149 of the Securities Industry Act, 2011 (No. 10 of 2011), makes the following Rules —

1. Citation.

These Rules may be cited as the Securities Industry (Contracts For Differences) Rules, 2020.

2. Interpretation.

In these Rules—

“Act” means the Securities Industry Act;

“binary option” means a contract or instrument that provides for only —

- (a) a predetermined fixed amount if the underlying interest referenced in the contract or instrument meets one or more predetermined conditions; and
- (b) zero or another predetermined fixed amount if the underlying interest referenced in the contract or instrument does not meet one or more predetermined conditions;

“CFD firm” means a firm registered under rule 5 of these rules to carry on securities business with respect to CFDs;

“CFD Supervisory Officer” means the supervisory officer appointed by the CFD firm to carry out the duties listed in rule 8;

“contract for differences” or “CFD” means —

- (a) a derivative other than an option, future, swap or forward rate agreement, the purpose of which is to give the holder a long or short exposure to fluctuations in the price, level or value of an underlying asset, irrespective of whether it is traded on a marketplace, and that must be settled in cash or may be settled in cash at the option of one of the parties other than by reason of default or other termination event; or

- (b) any other similar speculative investment as prescribed by the Commission;
- “Digital Asset” means a digital representation of value distributed through a Distributed Ledger Technology Platform where the value is embedded or in which there is a contractual right of use and includes without limitation digital tokens;
- “effective date” means the date these Rules come into effect;
- “elective professional clients” means a client who elects to be categorized as a professional client as set out in rule 25 of these Rules;
- “exposure” means the total value of the exposure to the underlying asset that the CFD provides;
- “major stock market index” means—
- (a) any of the following equity indices —
 - (i) Financial Times Stock Exchange 100 (FTSE 100);
 - (ii) Cotation Assistée en Continu 40 (CAC 40);
 - (iii) Deutsche Bourse AG German Stock Index 30 (DAX30);
 - (iv) Dow Jones Industrial Average (DJIA);
 - (v) Standard & Poor’s 500 (S&P 500);
 - (vi) NASDAQ Composite Index (NASDAQ), NASDAQ 100 Index (NASDAQ 100);
 - (vii) Nikkei Index (Nikkei 225);
 - (viii) Standard & Poor’s / Australian Securities Exchange 200 (ASX 200);
 - (ix) EURO STOXX 50 Index (EURO STOXX 50); or
 - (b) any other international equity index recognized by the Commission pursuant to the Securities Industry Act, 2011 (No.10 of 2011);
- “marketing” or “markets” includes advertising, soliciting business, or sending communications to clients or potential clients;
- “permitted sovereign debt” means debt instruments issued by or on behalf of the government of—
- (a) The Bahamas;
 - (b) A member state of the European Union that has adopted the Euro as its currency;
 - (c) Canada;
 - (d) Japan;
 - (e) Switzerland;
 - (f) The United Kingdom;
 - (g) The United States of America; or
 - (h) any other jurisdiction designated by the Commission pursuant to the Securities Industry Act, 2011 (No.10 of 2011);

“retail client” means any client who is not a professional client and “SIR” means the Securities Industry Regulations, 2012 (S.I. No.1 of 2012).

3. Application of the Act and SIR to these Rules.

Subject to these Rules, the Act and the SIR apply to all firms and individuals registered under these Rules.

PART II – REGISTERED FIRMS AND INDIVIDUALS

4. Specific registration required.

- (1) Any person who carries on securities business in, or otherwise provides or markets, CFDs in or from The Bahamas must be registered for this activity with the Commission under the Act and these Rules.
- (2) Firms that prior to the effective date of these Rules were registered to carry on the activities listed in paragraph 1(a) of the Part 2 of First Schedule of the Act and—
 - (a) carried on securities business with respect to CFDs on the effective date, and will to continue to do so; or
 - (b) carried on securities business but did not conduct CFD business on the effective date but now will engage in securities business with respect to CFDs, must be registered for this activity with the Commission under the Act and these Rules.

5. Firm registration categories.

The categories of registration to carry on securities business in, or otherwise provide, CFDs are:

- (a) a firm registered to carry on the activities listed in paragraph 1(a) of Part 2 of the First Schedule to the Act and to deal in CFDs in accordance with these Rules; or
- (b) a firm registered under these Rules to carry on the activities listed in paragraph 1(a) of Part 2 of the First Schedule to the Act, with its activities limited to dealing in CFDs.

6. New application for registration as a firm.

- (1) A new applicant for registration under Rule 5 of these Rules not previously registered under the Act shall deliver to the Commission –

- (a) a completed application Form CFD 1 of the Schedule, together with the information and documents specified;
 - (b) a completed application Form CFD 4 of the Schedule, regarding the CFD Supervisory Officer and other relevant officers.
- (2) An applicant that is registered to carry on activities listed in paragraph 1(a) of Part 2 of the First Schedule of the Act shall deliver to the Commission—
- (a) a completed application Form CFD 2 of the Schedule, together with the information and documents specified; and
 - (b) a completed application Form CFD 4 of the Schedule, regarding the CFD Supervisory Officer.

7. Requirements.

- (1) The Commission may grant registration under these Rules if the Commission is satisfied that the applicant –
- (a) is a company incorporated or registered under the Companies Act (Ch. 308) or the International Business Companies Act (Ch. 309);
 - (b) is organized in a manner and has sufficient capacity and resources to carry out its proposed functions in compliance with the Act, Regulations and these Rules, including—
 - (i) having appropriate and sufficient systems and controls to perform its functions and manage its risks prudently;
 - (ii) having appropriate and sufficient insurance coverage; and
 - (iii) observing standards of solvency and levels of capital as required;
 - (c) is fit and proper; and
 - (d) meets such other requirements as may be prescribed.
- (2) The initial requirements for registration shall continue to be met by the person throughout the period of registration under the Act and these Rules.

8. CFD Supervisory Officer.

- (1) In addition to the requirements in regulation 40 of the SIR, a CFD firm shall designate an officer to act as the CFD Supervisory Officer, who shall be –
- (a) an individual residing in The Bahamas;
 - (b) registered as such with the Commission; and
 - (c) responsible for the supervision of the CFD business undertaken by the firm to ensure it is carried out in compliance with the law, which responsibility cannot be delegated.

- (2) The functions of a CFD Supervisory Officer may be outsourced as long as the criteria in subparagraphs (a) to (c) of paragraph (1) above are satisfied.

9. Categories of individual registration.

In addition to the categories of individual registration set out in regulation 56 of the SIR, an individual may be registered as a—

- (a) CFD Supervisory Officer; or
- (b) Representative, trading (CFD).

10. Requirements for individual registration.

- (1) The Commission may grant registration if it is satisfied that the applicant —
 - (a) is at least 18 years of age;
 - (b) is fit and proper;
 - (c) does not have other interests, whether directly or indirectly, which may conflict with the conduct and integrity of the person's employment with the CFD firm; and
 - (d) meets any other requirements that the Commission deems appropriate.
- (2) The initial requirements for registration shall continue to be met by the person throughout the period of registration under the Act.

11. Education and experience.

In addition to the requirements set out in regulation 59 of the SIR, an applicant for registration as a —

- (a) CFD Supervisory Officer shall have —
 - (i) no less than three years of CFD or derivative-related experience and have obtained one of the examinations recognized by the Commission from time to time for these purposes; or
 - (ii) at least five years of securities-related experience, of which at least two years will be experience in derivatives or CFDs.
- (b) Representative, trading (CFD) shall have —
 - (i) no less than 3 years of CFD or derivative-related experience and have obtained one of the examinations recognized by the Commission from time to time for these purposes; or
 - (ii) at least ten years of securities-related experience, of which at least one year will be experience in derivatives or CFDs.

12. Physical presence requirements.

Notwithstanding rule 5 of the Securities Industry (Physical Presence) Rules, (S.I. No. 12 of 2012), a CFD firm shall not appoint a managing representative to satisfy the minimum physical presence requirements thereunder and must satisfy and maintain physical presence requirements by complying with the requirements set out in the Schedule of the Securities Industry (Physical Presence) Rules, (S.I. No. 12 of 2012).

13. Regulatory capital.

- (1) A CFD firm is required to maintain at all times adequate financial resources to —
 - (a) meet its business commitments;
 - (b) withstand the risks to which its business is subject; and
 - (c) meet the prescribed requirements.
- (2) A CFD firm shall maintain regulatory capital calculated in accordance with the capital formula prescribed by the Commission in Rules.

14. Reporting to the Commission.

- (1) In addition to the reporting required under regulation 49 of the SIR, a CFD firm must deliver to the Commission no later than the 120th day after the end of its financial year the information set out in Form CFD 3 of the Schedule for the year.
- (2) In addition to the reporting required under regulation 50 of the SIR, a CFD firm must deliver to the Commission no later than the 30th day after the end of the first, second, third and fourth quarter of its financial year the information set out in Form CFD 3 of the Schedule for that quarter.

15. Application for individual registration.

- (1) Unless the Commission permits or requires otherwise, an applicant for registration as an individual under these Rules shall—
 - (a) deliver to the Commission an application in Form CFD 4 of the Schedule specifying the category or categories of registration sought; and
 - (b) submit the application together with the information and documents specified.

- (2) An applicant may be required to provide supplementary information or clarification of the information initially provided in an application.

PART III – CONDUCT OF BUSINESS RULES

DIVISION I – GENERAL

16. Systems and controls – compliance and risk management.

In addition to the requirements set out in regulation 74 of the SIR, and Part II of the Securities Industry (Anti Money Laundering and Countering the Financing of Terrorism) Rules, 2015 (S.I. No. 96 of 2015) the policies and procedures, systems and controls for a firm registered under these Rules must include—

- (a) infrastructure for risk management including processes and contingency arrangements in the event the registered firm is unable to carry out its operations;
- (b) risk management processes that integrate prudent risk limits, continuous risk monitoring and regular management reporting on its CFD exposures;
- (c) comprehensive internal control and audit procedures; and
- (d) systems to ensure all requirements under these Rules are met.

17. Fair pricing of CFDs.

A CFD firm must not—

- (a) purchase CFDs for its own account from a client or sell CFDs for its own account to a client except at an aggregate price (including any mark-up or mark-down) that is fair and reasonable, taking into consideration all relevant factors, including the fair market value of the securities at the time of the transaction and of any securities exchanged or traded in connection with the transaction, the expense involved in effecting the transaction, the fact that the CFD firm is entitled to a profit, and the total dollar amount of the transaction; or
- (b) purchase or sell CFDs as an agent for a client for a commission or service charge in excess of a fair and reasonable amount, taking into consideration all relevant factors, including the availability of the securities involved in the transaction, the expense of executing or filling the customer's order, the value of the services rendered by the CFD firm, and the amount of any other compensation received or to be received by the CFD firm in connection with the transaction.

18. Contract note.

- (1) Any CFD firm that carries out any sale or purchase of CFDs on behalf of a client shall, within one business day after the sale or purchase was executed, make and transmit a contract note of the transaction to its client.
- (2) A contract note shall set out –
 - (a) a description of the CFD;
 - (b) the number of units of the CFD;
 - (c) the notional amount, quantity or volume of the underlying asset of the CFD;
 - (d) the total price paid for the derivative and the per unit price of the CFD;
 - (e) the name of the CFD firm involved in the transaction;
 - (f) whether the CFD firm was acting as principal or agent;
 - (g) the marketplace, if any, on which the transaction took place, or if applicable, a statement that the transaction took place on more than one marketplace or over more than one day; and
 - (h) any other information required by the Commission.

19. General margin requirement.

A CFD firm that enters into CFDs with its clients shall obtain margin from each customer, in the form of acceptable collateral, for the purpose of such trading.

DIVISION II – RESTRICTIONS ON MARKETING, DISTRIBUTION AND SALE OF CFDS TO RETAIL CLIENTS

20. Standardized risk warnings.

- (1) A CFD firm shall not market, publish or provide any communication, information, advertisement or public invitation regarding CFDs to a retail client, or disseminate such communication, information, advertisement or public invitation without including the following risk warning —

“CFDs are complex instruments and come with a high risk of losing money rapidly due to leverage.”

[insert percentage per provider] % of retail investor accounts lose money when trading CFDs with this provider.

You should consider whether you understand how CFDs work and whether you can afford to take the high risk of losing your money.”

- (2) The risk warning shall include an up-to-date firm-specific percentage of the firm’s retail clients who have lost money, and that percentage shall be determined in accordance with paragraphs (3) through (6).
- (3) The calculation of the percentage in paragraph (2) shall be performed every three months and shall cover the 12-month period preceding the date of the calculation.
- (4) For the purposes of the calculation of the percentage in paragraph (2), an individual retail client account shall be considered to have lost money if the sum of all realized and unrealized net profits on CFDs traded in that retail client’s account during the 12-month calculation period is zero or below zero.
- (5) The calculation of the percentage in paragraph (2) shall include all costs, fees, commissions and any other charges.
- (6) The calculation of the percentage in paragraph (2) shall not include:
 - (a) any retail client account that did not have an open CFD connected to it within the calculation period;
 - (b) any profits or losses from investments other than CFDs;
 - (c) all deposits of funds; and
 - (d) all withdrawals of funds.
- (7) The CFD firm must retain records of the retail client accounts used for these calculations for five years.
- (8) Where the retail client has not approached the CFD firm through a website or mobile application, the risk warning must be provided in writing in good time before the CFD firm carries on any business for the retail client.
- (9) If, when required to perform the calculation in paragraph (2), the CFD firm has not entered into a single trade of a CFD with a retail client in the previous 12 months, the CFD firm must use the following risk warning —

“CFDs are complex instruments and come with a high risk of losing money rapidly due to leverage.”

The majority of retail investor accounts lose money when trading CFDs.

You should consider whether you understand how CFDs work and whether you can afford to take the high risk of losing your money.”

- (10) A CFD firm shall apply to the Commission in writing for approval to use an abbreviated risk warning for the purpose of advertising on an electronic banner.

21. Format of risk warning.

- (1) The relevant risk warnings in rule 20 must be:
 - (a) prominent;
 - (b) contained within its own border and with bold and plain text as indicated;
 - (c) if provided on a website or via a mobile application, statically fixed and visible at the top of screen even when the retail client scrolls up or down the page; and
 - (d) if provided on a website, included on each linked webpage on the website.
- (2) The relevant risk warning, including the font size, should be proportionate, taking into account the content, size and orientation of the marketing material as a whole.

22. Requirement that margin posted by retail clients be in cash.

- (1) A CFD firm shall not open a position in a CFD for a retail client unless the margin posted to open the position is in the form of cash.
- (2) A CFD firm shall not maintain an open position in relation to a CFD for a retail client unless the margin posted to maintain the open position is in the form of cash.

23. Minimum margin requirements – retail clients.

- (1) A CFD firm must require a retail client to post margin to open a position in a CFD of at least equal to the following amounts –
 - (a) 0.5% of the value of the exposure that the trade provides when the underlying currency pair is composed of any two of the following currencies: Canadian dollar, Euro, Japanese yen, Pound sterling, Swiss franc or US dollar;
 - (b) 0.5% of the value of the exposure that the trade provides when the underlying asset is permitted sovereign debt;
 - (c) 0.5% of the value of the exposure that the trade provides when the underlying asset is a major stock market index, a currency pair composed of at least one currency not listed in (a) above, or gold;
 - (d) 0.5% of the value of the exposure that the trade provides when the

- underlying asset is a commodity other than gold or a stock market index other than a major stock market index;
- (e) 0.5% of the value of the exposure that the trade provides when the underlying asset is an equity security or an asset not otherwise listed in (a) to (d).
 - (f) 5% of the value of the exposure that the trade provides when the underlying asset is a digital asset.
- (2) The Commission may amend the margin requirements listed in subparagraph (1) (a) through (f).

24. Minimum Margin Exception – Professional Clients.

Minimum margin requirements established in rule 23 do not apply to professional clients.

25. Elective Professional Client.

- (1) A CFD firm may designate a client as an elective professional client if by an adequate assessment which tests the clients’-
 - (a) expertise, experience and knowledge of CFDs’; and
 - (b) understanding of the nature of the transactions or services;
the CFD firm is satisfied that the client is capable of making his own investment decisions and understanding the risks involved.
- (2) A CFD firm shall not designate a client as an elective professional client unless the client complies with two of the following criteria—
 - (a) the client has carried out transactions, in significant size, on the relevant market at an average frequency of 10 transactions per quarter over the previous four quarters;
 - (b) the size of the client’s financial instrument portfolio, including cash deposits and financial instruments, exceeds $500,000;
 - (c) the client works or has worked in the financial sector for at least one year in a professional position, which requires knowledge of the transactions or services envisaged.
- (3) Prior to designating a client as an elective professional client a CFD firm shall—
 - (a) obtain the client’s written consent to be treated as a professional client either generally or in respect of a particular service or transaction or type of transaction or product;
 - (b) give the client a clear written warning of the protections and investor compensation rights the client may lose; and
 - (c) get the client’s written confirmation in a document separate from the contract, that the client is aware of the consequences of losing the relevant protections and compensation rights.

26. Use of funds in retail client account.

Funds held by a CFD firm as margin in a retail client account must be segregated in accordance with regulation 88(2) of the SIR and may not be borrowed, charged or used by the CFD firm for any other purpose.

27. Margin close-out requirements for retail clients.

- (1) A CFD firm must ensure a retail client's net equity in an account used to trade CFDs does not fall below 50% of the margin requirements set out in rule 23.
- (2) Where a retail client's net equity falls below 50% of the margin requirement, the CFD firm must close the retail client's open position(s) as soon as market conditions allow or have the client add additional margin to become compliant with this rule.
- (3) In this rule, "net equity" means the sum of the retail client's net profit and loss on their open position(s) and the retail client's deposited margin.

28. Disclosure of margin close-out.

- (1) A CFD firm must provide its retail clients with a clear description of how the retail client's margin close-out level will be calculated and triggered —
 - (a) before the retail client opens his or her first position; and
 - (b) before any change to the terms and conditions applicable to the retail client takes effect.
- (2) The description required by paragraph (1) may be given to the client in writing or be prominently displayed on a website.

29. Negative balance protection.

- (1) The liability of a retail client for all CFDs connected to the retail client's account is limited to the funds in that account.
- (2) For the purposes of paragraph (1) —
 - (a) funds in a retail client's account are limited to the cash in the account and unrealized net profits from open positions;
 - (b) "unrealized net profits of all open positions" means the sum of unrealized gains and losses of all open positions recorded in the account; and

- (c) any funds or other assets in the retail client's account for purposes other than trading CFDs must be disregarded.

30. Restrictions on retail incentives.

- (1) Except as a rebate of trading expenses, a CFD firm shall not directly or indirectly provide a retail client with any incentive, whether monetary or non-monetary, when marketing, distributing or selling a CFD without the consent of the Commission.
- (2) For the purposes of paragraph (1), information and research tools regarding CFDs are not considered to be incentives.

PART IV – PROSPECTUS EXEMPTION

31. Prospectus requirement exemption.

The requirement to file a prospectus under section 83 of the Act does not apply to a distribution of CFDs.

PART V – OTHER

32. Trading in binary options with a retail client prohibited.

No person or company may market, advertise, offer, sell or otherwise trade a binary option with or to —

- (a) a retail client; or
- (b) a person that was created, or is used, solely to trade a binary option.

33. Prohibition on circumvention.

No person shall knowingly participate in activities the object or effect of which is to circumvent the requirements in these Rules, including as acting as a substitute for a provider of CFDs.

34. Granting an exemption.

The Commission may grant an exemption from these Rules, in whole or in part, subject to such conditions or restrictions as may be imposed in the exemption.

35. Transition provisions.

A firm registered to carry on activities listed in paragraph 1(a) of Part 2 of the First Schedule to the Act that carried on securities business with respect to CFDs prior to the effective date of these rules shall, within six months from the effective date of these rules apply for registration as required in accordance with rule 6.
