

Romance Scam

A romance scam involves a fraudster who creates a fake online persona with the intent of winning an individual's trust. They then manipulate their victims into handing over money, often promising to pay it back later. They commonly use scenarios such as medical emergencies, financial transactions, or investment opportunities to emotionally prey on their targets, all with the same intent.

