

Where Should You Report a Scam?

Should you suspect that you are being scammed you should

Be sure to take screenshots of all relevant communication and details, as having more information on hand will make it easier for the Commission to launch an investigation. For information, visit

<https://www.scb.gov.bs/complaints>

Reach out to the Securities Commission of The Bahamas right away by calling 397-4100

